

United J.C. Conference At Salinas

The Associated Students of Salinas Junior College, who are acting as hosts for the United California Junior College Council Conference, have sent out 50 invitations to junior colleges in California to attend the meeting here, November 30.

Meeting for the first time in such a conference as this, J.C. presidents and vice-presidents will join together to formulate plans to be carried out later in their respective schools.

Associated student commissioners of S.J.C. are now making arrangements for the November luncheon to be served in the cafeteria at noon and will be free of charge. Tony Mercante, who will be in charge of the meeting that day, is planning programs made in pamphlet form with pictures of Monterey, Salinas, and the Bay area, and also a schedule of the day's events which may be taken home as souvenirs of the conference.

Following the last meeting of the day, there is a possibility

HOMEcoming FOR ALUMNI NOVEMBER 22

An alumni homecoming celebration will be held at S.J.C. on Friday, November 22. All alumni are asked to attend, as an important meeting will be held to discuss plans for an alumni association.

Members of the World Students' Service Fund and the Alpha Gamma Sigma Club are arranging this homecoming to honor all junior college alumni. An open house, an alumni meeting, a football game, and a semi-formal dance will make up the program for the day.

From 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., ex-students are invited to visit the classes while in session and to renew old acquaintances. The alumni meeting will be from 3

Louis Eris Returns Today After Illness

Mr. Louis Eris, junior college language and psychology instructor, who has been recuperating following a recent operation, returns to his desk at college today.

Mr. Eris, popular with students and faculty, was operated on a number of weeks ago at the Salinas Valley Hospital.

WHISKERINO DANCE TO BE TOMORROW

Tomorrow night, the traditional Post-Whiskerino Dance which usually has followed the Whiskerino-Ribbonero Field Day will be held following the game with San Mateo Junior College.

In the past, Field Day has ended with a game and dance, but inasmuch as the game falls on Saturday night and the Field Day is scheduled for Friday, the dance will be held Saturday.

The affair, which will be held in the Salinas Junior College Men's Gym, is being sponsored by the Men's Club, headed by Mert Stroh.

Mud Brawl, Field Events, Dinner, to Mark End of Whiskerino and Ribbonero

Mud and freshmen will be flying fast and furiously come 4 o'clock this afternoon when the annual Field Day Mud Brawl will take place south of the men's gym. Teams of 10 sophomores and 10 freshmen will attempt to throw each other into the slimy mud. Eventually, all the freshmen and all the sophomore men will probably end up in the filthy stuff.

Classes will be over at 1 o'clock and the Whiskerino-Ribbonero Field Day will officially begin.

Team captains from both classes have been chosen, and both men's and women's sports will be features of the afternoon's entertainment.

Speedball, baseball, mixed volleyball and six-man football will be offered.

Following the games will be the famous Mud Brawl. After cleaning up a bit, the student body will go to the men's gym where a delicious dinner consist-

Drinking Rules Set By Board

Rules concerning alcohol on the junior college premises, that will be enforced and put into use for Saturday night's dance, and every social affair thereafter, were passed by an Associated Student Commission meeting this week.

These rules are as follows:

1. Any student found drinking on the campus will be expelled from the junior college.
2. Anyone appearing at a college student function in an intoxicated condition will be reported and subject to dismissal from the college.
3. A plain clothesman must be hired by the sponsors of each dance to patrol the grounds.
4. "No Smoking" signs must be placed in the gym for each dance.
5. Anyone coming to an S.J.C. dance, who is not an enrolled student of the college, must present a guest card before entering the dance floor. Guest cards may be obtained before each school affair, in the Administration

NAVY MOVIE THURSDAY IN JC 'THEATER'

A movie will be shown in the J.C. Little Theater Thursday, November 21, at 3 p.m., by the United States Naval Recruiting service.

One of two films, "To the Shores of Iwo Jima," and "The Fleet That Came to Stay," will be shown. The movie, "To the Shores of Iwo Jima" is filmed in vivid Technicolor.

The film is especially for veterans as there will be an assembly for them at that time, but all J.C. students who have no classes at that time are welcome to attend. This meeting is extremely important to veterans because Lt. Commander Jacques Chevalier will be on hand to speak and to enlist all those interested in the Inactive Naval Reserve.

Club Meetings Cancelled For Today's Events

Regular 3 o'clock club meetings will not be held today because the Field Day will fill the afternoon for the entire student body. The Junior Sophtimist and the Art Club had meetings scheduled for this afternoon. If a meeting is deemed necessary, special arrangements may be made with the respective club advisors for another time.

Thinking Out Loud

By PEGGY ANNE TAYLOR

Concerning themselves with problems of alcohol at student dances, poor sportsmanship in Whiskerino and Ribbonero affairs, and compact unfriendly social circles, two meetings were held last Friday—one for all men students and one for all women.

Nothing could have been more timely than the two discussion groups. Both brought to the surface a few of the most contemporary problems now confronting everyone enrolled in the junior college.

A compliment to both the persons in charge of the meetings and to the students attending was the attitude which prevailed after the group discussions. More wholehearted friendship was evident around "ye old campus" on Friday than has been shown since the signing of last year's yearbook.

It is imperative that students going to this small college get along. Co-operative action is needed in every department and social activity.

It will not only be interesting, but also a deciding element in plans to evolve at Jaysee, to observe FUTURE development of the effect of these two meetings. If future action proves to be only half as active as Friday's response, students of Salinas Junior College are out to accomplish something that all colleges have tried but never been completely successful in. This is to abolish cliques and have all students on a socially recognized equal level.

THE BARRETTS TICKET SALE STARTS TODAY

Tickets for the play, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," go on sale in the administration office today. The price of the tickets, which are all reserved seats, is 60 cents. Children under 12 will not be admitted to the theater unless accompanied by adults.

As the seating capacity is very small, all students are urged to buy their tickets early. The tickets will be on sale exclusively to students today in the office; and on Monday they will go on sale downtown to the general public.

ing of chicken, beans, salad, beverage, and a dessert will be served.

After the dinner, many of the students plan to travel to Monterey to view the Salinas High-Monterey High C.C.A.L. championship game.

(See page 2 for calendar of the day's events.)

Heroine Being Foiled By Hero, Despite 800 Aids

It's the same old melodrama. The heroine spurns the wicked proposals of the villain and is cast out into the cold . . . without food, without shelter, without warm clothing. She cries to the healthy, warm hero who is dining in a nearby inn.

But the same old melodrama goes modern . . . it turns into the present-day situation: The hero (?) hears the cries of the heroine, but he fails to show up and save her. He didn't raise the mortgage, even with the aid of almost 800 friends!

For the benefit of those few who are dense or who would just prefer to ignore the story, without thinking about it, here's the translation:

The European and Chinese students (heroine) spurns the wicked proposals of the villain (aggressor nations) and is cast out into the cold. She cries to the healthy, warm, and book-wise hero (American students) who is dining in a nearby inn. The hero (??) hears the cries of the heroine (the cold-hungry students who want education so desperately), but he fails to show up and save her. He didn't raise the mortgage even with the aid of almost 800 friends. (The students of Salinas Junior College have not come to the aid of the starving, freezing students of Europe, although there are almost 800 jayseers.)

"Unless someone donates a $500 check," stated Chairman Link, "we might as well run and hide . . . from everyone."

Between $20 and $30 has been collected for the fund after almost two weeks of the drive. Some students will feel ashamed, some will scoff, some will ignore . . . the fifty students who have donated will feel helpless.

Give to the W.S.S.F. today!

DANCE . . .

dancing will be Bill Cordes and his Swingster Band. Dave Geery is taking care of band arrangements.

Heading the decoration committee is Jim Heisinger.

Dancing will last until 1 o'clock. San Mateo Junior College rooters and team members are welcome to attend the dance provided they show their student body cards at the door.

PING-PONG A GOOD GAME?

"Everyone says that ping-pong is a sissy's game. But if it is so easy, Then murder is tame!"

"All the equipment you need is one small white ball, One light rubber-backed paddle, Net, table, and hall."

"You are now set and ready, So you flip a dime To see who will start to serve Or receive this time."

"When the decision is called, And, of course, you lost, You watch your opponent pocket YOUR dime that he tossed."

"Thus, you stand back to receive The way the book said. You must have missed the paragraph Where ball hits your head."

"Being the strong, silent type, You utter no sound. With a grim determination You are standing your ground."

"Again the ball whizzes by; You take a wild swing. Miss the ball—hit the wall, And hear the birdies sing."

"You swing, you stoop, and you fall. Front flip, back flip—side. Crack your shins, break the ball And tear skin off your hide."

"You are bloody, bruised and torn. You just look a sight! But there's no one left to say 'Little Joe' didn't fight!"

"You wearily walk away. The game has been won. But you still have to KILL who wrote: 'Play Ping-Pong for Fun.'"

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

SAN FRANCISCO J.C.

From the San Francisco Junior College we learn that an all-time high has been set! A potential track star has acquired his lunch tray, after shedding much sweat and blood, in exactly 6 minutes, 11¼ seconds. The situation at the Salinas Junior College isn't that bad!

Also, from the S.F.J.C., it is learned that the student body is planning a radio group to take part in various programs on radio station KQW.

SANTA ROSA J.C.

The Santa Rosa Junior College is going in for flying in a great big way. There are 67 students sprouting their wings to date, and private licenses are being acquired every day. Along with the flight classes, students must complete three units in navigation and meteorology, and one unit in civil air regulations and radio. Look up to Santa Rosa!

REEDLEY J.C.

The Reedley Junior College is using identification photos this year, not for incriminating purposes, just an aid in identifying students names with faces . . . As in Santa Rosa, the same goes with Reedley.

Spirit Shown By Two Jaysee Coeds

With many thanks to Louise Marshall and Claudia Fielding, the rooting sections of the high school stadium and the goal posts on the football field were decorated for Monday night's game.

These two Jaysee women took it upon themselves to get the crepe paper and have the stadium decorated before 8 o'clock that night. This was quite a bit to do, taking into consideration that the day was a holiday. This was school spirit personified!

Westminster Club Headed By Gregory

Payson Gregory was elected Westminster Club president at a meeting held in the Little Theater Friday, November 8, at 3 o'clock. The nomination committee had prepared the ballot for the election.

Other officers elected are: John Kelley, treasurer; Eula Laughton, secretary; Charles Link, art and publicity chairman; Alyce Kinder, refreshment chairman; Bertha Black, Betty Head, and Sue Armstrong, the music committee. Edith Beck was appointed membership chairman.

Refreshments were served and the film, "The Road to Damascus," was shown preceding the election of officers.

EDWIN LANINI SPEAKER AT LIONS CLUB

Edwin Lanini, J.C. student who is almost totally blind, attended a Lions Club luncheon yesterday at the Jeffery Hotel in Salinas.

Accompanied to the meeting by Mr. John B. Lemos, president of the junior college, Lanini gave a demonstration of how a blind student takes notes and transcribes them on the typewriter. Mr. Lemos dictated to him and notes were taken in braille, then transcribed on the typewriter.

In a brief talk, Mr. Lemos asked the student questions regarding his education and methods of working side by side with other students, which Mr. Lanini answered.

This was not the blind student's first appearance before a service club as he has given several enlightening talks on educational opportunities for the blind.

Previous to attending the local J.C., Mr. Lanini was at a school for the blind.

Soroptimists Hold Luncheon

Approximately 35 Junior Soroptimists feasted at a luncheon meeting in the Home Economics room Tuesday noon, November 12. Following the luncheon, Rosemary Sutherland sang, "Now You Are Free," accompanied by Dolores Johnston; and Jack Shapiro gave a reading by Ogden Nash.

Three social service workers were the guest speakers at the meeting. Miss Charlotte Bangert, from the probation department at the court house, and her two colleagues, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Camp, spoke on the fields of social service work, including juvenile problems and home service work.

CAMPUS CLOTHES

By
PATTIE WEATHERBIE

Those masculine sweaters about school look even softer and more beautiful since the contrasting stubble of beards first appeared. Amon Fonville wears a V-neck long sleeved slip-on over a light turquoise rayon sport shirt and slacks. A luscious color combination! A warm reddish brown shade of Steele Wilson's long-sleeved pull-over couldn't be a truer Thanksgiving color unless it were the bright harvest yellow of Walter Trotter's cable stitch sweater. Another handsome cable stitch is a bright blue sweater worn by Ben Marcus.

"You must have been a beautiful baby, cause baby, look at you now." Ouida Bishop looked absolutely charming this week in an outfit of pink and blue. Pink was the color of the skirt and cardigan sweater worn over a light blue shirtwaist blouse with a matching 3x5-inch blue ribbon.

The idea of couples dressing alike seems to find favor with some of our Jayseers as the twosomes don like plaid shirts. At the barn dance Friday night, Joy Garces and Norm Enos danced merrily in twin plaid shirts of black, red, and white, worn over jeans. At school last week, Dave Geery and Peggy Taylor wore identical cotton flannel shirts with a medium plaid of blue, red, and white. Could have been more effective, Dave, if you had worn a matching skirt. Seriously, the "twin idea" is a cute one!

A Cup of Joe
Only 5c Now

Commencing today, the inevitable cup of coffee will cost only 5 cents in the cafeteria. Refills will be an additional nickel.

During the accounting period of September and October, the cafeteria showed a profit, Comptroller Karl Bengston reports. Inasmuch as it is not intended that a profit should be made in the cafeteria, it was decided prices will be cut when possible. The first cut is in coffee, previously 10 cents a cup.

With O.P.A. controls removed, it has already been found that the cafeteria is having to pay higher prices for items necessary for meals.

Opera Attended
By Jayseers

Several Jaysee students were among opera-goers last Friday night when the opera, "Carmen," was presented at the Salinas Union High School Auditorium.

Marge Diaz, Tony Mercante, Carmen Mercante, Elmer Hawkins, Alyce Kinder, Burma Langston, Bertha Black, Audrey Sumner, and Barbara Batemen were a few of those students from the Jaysee halls.

CINCHES AGAIN
DUE TO GO OUT

Today marks the end of the second six-weeks' period this year at Salinas J.C. Cinch notices are due in the office from the instructors on Wednesday, November 20.

These second notices of deficiency will be sent out to the students as soon after November 20 as the office force can get them out.

JAYSEERS
BARN DANCE

A large crowd turned out for the barn dance in Castroville last Friday night. Dancing to the music of Tony Vyeda and his band took place from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

The decorations were unusually good with "farm life" as the theme. An "out-house" formed the entrance giving that real country effect. Pi Delta Kappa and Gamma Nu sponsored the dance, so things were pretty bad for some fellas and gals, as the pledges had to work most of the night.

Two tickets to the Santa Clara-St. Mary's football game were raffled off and won by Thurman Black. Refreshments, except for cokes, were served free.

Home Ec Club To Have Speaker

Miss Margaret Prausa, assistant home demonstration agent of Monterey County, will be the guest speaker at the Colhecon luncheon meeting next Wednesday, in the J.C. home economics department.

The noon meeting will be presided over by Pat Rayle, president of the group. In charge of luncheon arrangements is Carol McCann, who has planned a delicious meal for 25 cents, consisting of a main dish, salad, beverage, chocolate pudding with whipped cream and cookies.

Betsy Volk, program chairman, has secured Rosemary Sutherland and Bertha Black to furnish musical entertainment.

HOMECOMING...

p.m. to 4 p.m. in the Little Theater. Following the meeting, refreshments will be served in the Home Economics dining room.

Mesa, Colorado, J.C. will play S.J.C. at the Salinas high school stadium, followed by a semi-formal dance to be held in the men's gym at J.C. The dance will honor the visiting alumni, and it is hoped that many of them will be present. Proceeds of the dance will go into the World Students' Service Fund for the purpose of purchasing materials for book-stranded Europeans.

Student chairmen for the day's events are David Hill, Betsy Volk, Bertha Black, Peggy Anne Taylor, Dick Helm, and Roger Erickson.

Finder: Turn
It in, Please

A Shaeffer lifetime fountain pen was lost last Friday noon by Jacquie Anderson. The pen is a small, black one with a gold band and gold clip. Will anyone who has found this pen PLEASE turn it into the Panther Sentinel room, the main office, or to Jacquie Anderson. It is much more valuable to the loser, for many reasons, than it is to the finder. REWARD!

PLEASE turn it in.

FRIDAY
SCRAPBOOK

Before cutting this issue of The Panther Sentinel into appropriate sections, pause awhile and shop around in the next few paragraphs. If you find something that you like, don't blame us, 'cause we stole it.

Grid fans are flocking out to the campus football field these afternoons to give out cheers for their favorite entry in the intramural football league. Exclusive patrons lining the sidelines early this week were CHUCK and BETTY BEM, DOROTHY CREWS, and RUTH McBRIDE. A regular member of this crowd, JIM AMOS, was among the missing, but gal friend GWEN HAYES didn't seem to mind as "RAMP" RAMPONE'S extra curricular activities were centered around her.

BUTCH BERRY, student photographer, went out to watch football practice the other afternoon, and Coach Adams immediately hung a sign on him reading, "This is what will happen to you if you don't stay in training."

We would like the word on just where Jaysee's library romeros vanished the other night when they left their studies so very, very early. Seen sneaking away to commit dark and sundry deeds were BOB WORK, TOM CERNEY, and BOB WIGHAM.

Here's a new angle on the bring teacher an apple story. STINKY WILLIAMS presented one of her instructors with a large package of spaghetti recently. 'Tis rumored that she'll return from San Fran. soon with a nice big keg of spaghetti. That's getting an "A" the hard way.

Wanted in the Jaysee caf: Girl with wooden leg to mash potatoes.

Odds-on favorite to cop the Whiskerino prize for the shaggiest crop of whiskers is FRANK STONE. Running a close second is big JIM DeLORIMIER. Ugh, they gung be sorry when they try to shave.

FINIS JEFFERS and RAINIE HICKS served cheeseburgers and coffee to a cold and hungry crew after the Stockton game. Guests at the Hicks' residence were MARGIE DIAZ, TONY MERCANTE, WALTER TROTTER, and JANICE SMITH.

Stockton Cubs Swamp Panthers for Easy Win

Scoring at will, the Stockton J.C. Cubs swarmed over the Salinas Panthers, 44-12, in an Armistice Day encounter on the local field.

This was by far the weakest Salinas performance to date. Only liberal substitution on the part of the Stockton coach kept the score from reaching greater heights.

The invaders had amassed 26 points before the Panthers were able to hit pay dirt. Late in the second quarter, Clarence Twitchell drove through tackle for one yard and the initial Salinas score. The T.D. was the result of a 77-yard drive that featured the same Twitchell to Napoli lateral play that was used so successfully in the Reedley game.

Panther rooters who were able to brave the near-freezing temperatures received another chance to exercise their vocal cords in the final period when Chet Garner took a toss from Twitchell and lateraled to Everett McAdams who outraced the entire Stockton team to cross the goal line. The play was good for 81 yards.

Coach Ed Adams substituted freely in an attempt to find a combination to stop the Cub attack but the Panthers were completely outcharged throughout the entire contest.

The starting line-up:

BASEBALL SUNDAY

The Salinas J.C. nine in the Peninsula Winter League will play its second league tilt when it tackles the Carmel Legion nine at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Monterey Ball Park.

Both teams won their league openers last Sunday when the Panthers downed the Monterey Legion and Carmel took the measure of the Stolte entry.

Probable starting batteries will be Jim DeLorimier on the mound and Finis Jeffers behind the plate for Jaysee with the well-known Myamoto brothers doing the duties for Carmel.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS PROGRAM

Football

A 7-to-7 tie between Work's Lumberjacks and Tom Muniz's Scarlet Scavengers highlighted intramural football play last week. The game, a killer-diller all the way—will not go into the records with a bearing on league standings and will have to be played over at a later date. Ramponi's Ramblers capitalized on an intercepted pass to down Mercante's Manglers, 7 to 0, in the only other late week game to be played in the six-man football league.

Ping-Pong

Entrants in the ping-pong tournament are urged to play off their matches as soon as possible in order to speed up the start of the second round of competition. Some matches have been played, but there has been no notice of the results posted on the bulletin board by the contestants.

The bottom man on the pairings is responsible for arranging the match, and should his opponent fail to show at the time agreed on, the low man is the winner by default.

Tennis

Coach G. Darwin Peavy would like a large turn-out for the forthcoming tennis tournament. Prospective tennis stars may sign up in the gym at their convenience.

Turkey Trot

Definite times and dates have finally been set for the running of the Salinas J.C. turkey trot.

Today, in the middle of Field Day activities, the first running of the three scheduled events will take place. November 19 and November 21 are the other two dates, both at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Darwin Peavy has announced that the 2½-mile course will include running around the grammar school, the surrounding lettuce fields, up Central Avenue, and then once around the junior college track. He also announced that the race will be a CONFERENCE FINAL SAT.

SPORTS SHORTS

By BILL THACKER

A well-known sportswriter deemed the Notre Dame-Army game of last week a contributing factor to the death of the "T" formation. With utmost respect for the learned scribe, we are somewhat inclined toward disbelief after watching Stockton J.C. run Salinas into the ground on Monday night.

Stockton worked off a "T" that was beautiful to watch. Their quick-opening plays were supplemented with speed in the open field and key blocks on the Salinas backers-up. It is hard to see how the "T" will ever fade from the football scene when it has proved to be the ideal formation when a coach wants to make the most of speed and good timing. The "T" is here to stay, and as long as it does, grid fans throughout the nation are in for some good, fast football.

San Francisco Junior College got the jump on its "A" division casaba competitors this week by playing their first basketball game of the 1946-47 season against a service outfit in San Francisco. Salinas will open cage activities during the Thanksgiving vacation at which time Coach Adams will call for the first practice of the season. All signs point to a successful year on the court.

Poor attendance marked the opening of the Winter League, five-team baseball league on the Monterey Peninsula, in which Salinas pounded out a 14-to-7 victory over the Monterey Legion. It would be a fine gesture on the part of some of the J.C. students to turn out at these games and support Coach Dominic Campolo and his better than average nine.

W.A.A. Tourney

Salinas J.C.'s speedball tournament began Wednesday, November 13, when the women's 1 o'clock physical education class split into two teams to battle for the tournament championship. The teams consist of the regular women's gym class plus any other girls who were interested.

The tournament will be continued next week.

handicap affair. Any runner who had placed in any high school or college track meet will be given a handicap, thus giving any person running a fair chance to win the Thanksgiving turkey offered as first prize.

San Mateo and Salinas Tangle on Home Field

Soundly thumped and a thoroughly beaten team in their last two outings, the Salinas Junior College Panthers will attempt to make their last league contest of the year a winning one when they tangle with the highly touted San Mateo J.C. Bulldogs on the Salinas home field.

PANTHER NINE WHIPS LEGION 14-7

The Salinas Junior College Panthers opened the Monterey Winter League baseball season with a decisive 14-7 victory over the Monterey American Legion, nine last Sunday at the Pacific Grove ball park.

A freezing wind cut the ball game down from the regulation nine innings to seven-inning contest, both sides agreeing it was too cold to play ball.

The outcome of the game was never in doubt although the Legion led temporarily in the fourth at 6-5. The Panthers finally bared their fangs in the fifth with a five-run outburst to take a commanding lead they never relinquished.

Biggest blow of the inning was a two-run double by Dean Dillingham into left center.

The Panthers added two more runs in each of the final two frames, the first two on a home run by Tom Perez over the gulch in left centerfield.

The Legion added one more run to make the final score read 14-7.

Jim DeLorimier started on the mound for the locals, and held Monterey quite well in check for three innings till he weakened and had to be replaced by Topper Arnett. Arnett, throwing his curve ball exclusively, allowed only one more run in the final four frames.

Charlie Monard led Panther hitters for the day with four hits in five attempts, and Frank Stone and Finis Jeffers each collected a pair.

Doctor (after examining the patient): "I don't like the looks of your husband, Mrs. Brown."

Mrs. Brown: "Neither do I, doctor, but he's good to the children."

The Panthers have definitely been the doormats of the N.C.J.C. Conference and if they are set for an upset, this is the time for it. The San Mateans, supposedly the toughest team in the league, have lost two games, while winning the same number. Their last tilt saw them bow to the Sacramento eleven by a 20-7 margin. San Mateo was the betting favorite for the game, as they undoubtedly will be for the Salinas tilt.

Although Sacramento ran all over the Panthers, they did likewise against the Bulldogs. Comparative scores against the powerful Sacramento team put Salinas and San Mateo on almost even terms.

Another score was San Mateo's 6-0 victory over Modesto. Salinas and Modesto battled on even terms.

Another score was San Mateo's 6-0 victory over Modesto. Salinas and Modesto battled on even terms for three quarters before the Panthers fell apart. Here, too, comparative scores are not too distant. Although the result of the game was directly opposite in who lost and who won.

If the Panthers are high for this one, they could cop it.

Injuries, among other things, could keep the locals from looking too good come this Saturday. Four men, Earl Burns, Russ Bohlke, Ralph Mack, and Art Wheat, are on the ailing list. Burns, Wheat, and Bohlke all are out with swollen ankles, while Mack dislocated his left elbow.

The Panther ends, Ev McAdams and Chet Garner, played their usual topnotch football against Stockton, while Don Napoli played hard and rugged in the backfield.

Football Results

San Francisco J.C. retained their lead in the "A" division of the N.C.J.C.C. by swarming over the Modesto Pirates to the tune of 38-7. Sacramento speedsters raced to another conference win when they downed San Mateo, 20 to 7, in an Armistice Day tilt.

The only available score in the "B" division was the Napa-Yuba contest which was copped by Napa, 13-0.

Compton College, ranked number one nationally among the two year colleges, romped to a 26-18 win over the Utah Aggies.
